

TO SERVE A SECOND THREE-YEAR TERM:

KRISTINA ANTONIADES was born in in the Swedish speaking population of Finland. She studied medicine at the University of Helsinki with specialty training in Philadelphia. She is Board-certified in Anatomic Pathology in USA and in Finland, and was staff pathologist at Crozer-Chester Medical Center from 1971 to 2004. Her longstanding connection with ASHM started with her children participating in Lucia festivities as tomtar, starboys, and Lucia. She translated a Pehr Kalm manuscript for the ASHM Linnaeus exhibition in 2007. She has also worked with Midsommarklubben, and is also a docent at the Barnes Foundation. She lives in Philadelphia with her husband John.

RONI CHRISTENSEN grew up in Delaware County and attended Temple University where she earned a BA in Liberal Arts. She retired from Sears in 2007 where she had held positions in Visual Presentation, Sales Management, Marketing and Logistics. She currently works for a senior living center in Delaware County, PA. She has a lifelong interest in all things Scandinavian; her grandparents came to the United States in the 1920s, and she has done extensive Swedish family genealogical research and enjoys going to Sweden to meet her extended family. She originally came to the ASHM to take Swedish lessons, and she served as the Auxiliary president in FY2012.

GEORGE C. McFARLAND III received his BA in Political Science from Colgate University. During his tenure at Colgate, he was a member of the Men's Division 1 Soccer Program and held various positions on the Executive Board of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity. Growing up in the Philadelphia area, he attended The Episcopal Academy through high school where he graduated with honors. He is no stranger to the museum - he accompanied his grandmother, Esther Ann McFarland, to the opening of the New Sweden Gallery in spring of 2011 where he met Princess Madeleine.

ABBY SHAW has worked in museum archival storage for over 20 years. She is presently employed by Hollinger Metal Edge as a representative for marketing, sales and new product development, and has worked at the Conservation Center for Art and Historic Artifacts for eight years, where she also served as the executive director. Abby has served on the ASHM Museum Committee for several years and assisted with the planning for the ASHM exhibition, Go Swedish: Smörgåsbord and Beyond. Abby Shaw has an MA in History of Arts from the University of Michigan and is a member of FACTS (Fine Art Care and Treatment Standards).

TO SERVE A FIRST THREE-YEAR TERM:

JOHN HOLSTRÖM was born in Sollentuna, Sweden. He attended schools in Österskär and Åkersberga outside of Stockholm, and later attended Cornell University where he attained his BS in Hotel Administration. John has been a member of the ASHM since he moved to the area over 17 years ago, and attends as many events as possible with his partner John, his friends, and his family. In addition to supporting ASHM, John is an avid Phillies fan, Philadelphia Orchestra and Philadelphia Theatre company subscriber, member of the Philadelphia Art Museum, the Constitution Center and the Barnes Foundation.

JULIE JURASH is a graduate of the University of Delaware and currently works in Board Relations for Glenmede, an investment firm in Center City. Prior to joining Glenmede, Julie worked for the Executive Director of Development at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Earlier in her career, she worked for investment firms in Boston and Chicago, and volunteered at Northwestern Memorial Hospital and the Art Institute of Chicago. She has been affiliated with ASHM since the 1980s, attending the April 1988 luncheon at ASHM honoring the visit of King Carl XVI Gustaf and Queen Silvia of Sweden, who were in America to commemorate the 350th anniversary of the founding of the New Sweden colony.

MIA LEHMANN was born and raised in Gothenburg, Sweden, Mia came to Philadelphia in 1997, after graduating from Johnson & Wales University with distinguished honors, with a BA in Travel Tourism Management. Mia has over 15 years of experience in the travel industry. Her focus has been on specialty travel to Europe and group travel to Israel, involving contract negotiations, costing, writing itineraries, managing overseas staff, She is also a member of the National Honor Society of Alpha Beta Kappa and Eta Sigma Delta. Mia has been an active member at ASHM since 1998 and a member of the Midsummer club, helping with Christmas and Midsummer events at the museum. Mia's children have participated in the museum's Lucia pageant, since they were two years of age. She is also a member of SWEA (Swedish Women's Educational Association).

ERIK MUTHER is the managing director of the Pennsylvania Health Care Quality Alliance (PHCQA) at the Health Care Improvement Foundation (HCIF). Erik has over 20 years of healthcare experience and is a recognized industry expert. Prior to joining PHCQA in January 2007 as the founding executive director, Erik was a senior manager in the health care practice of Accenture. Erik has previously served on the Board of Governors for the American Swedish Historical Museum between 2001 and 2007, and from 2008 and 2014, and has been the chair of the ASHM Finance Committee for over 10 years. He is also treasurer and Board member of Lansdowne Friends School in Delaware County. Erik is a dual Swedish/American citizen and spent his last two years of high school at Sigtuna Humanistiska Läroverket completing the International Baccalaureate program outside of Stockholm before attending Haverford College in Pennsylvania.

KRISTINA JOHNSON O'DOHERTY is a retired Special Agent of the FBI. She was assigned to the Philadelphia Office, the Albany Office and FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C. during her career. Prior to the FBI, she was a teacher in the Springfield School District. Kristina has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from Millersville State College and a Master of Arts degree in Counseling from Villanova University. She has been an active member of the ASHM starting with her involvement in the Genealogy Club. Kristina is also a current member of the ASHM Auxiliary Board, the Genealogy Club and the Spring Ting Committee, having served as Spring Ting Chair from 2008 to 2010. She is a former member of the ASHM Board of Governors, having served two terms. Kristina stated that being a volunteer at the ASHM enables her to express her gratitude to her Swedish grandparents for their sacrifices and fortitude and to demonstrate her admiration and respect for her Swedish roots. Kristina currently serves as Co-Chairman of the Emergency Aid of Pennsylvania's Board of Directors. She is married to John O'Doherty, also a retired FBI Special Agent.