-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

Celebrate Summer in Swedish Style at Midsommarfest
Saturday, June 22, 2013 4pm to 7:30pm

Get in the spirit of summer by raising the midsommarpole, wearing a wreath of flowers in your hair, and enjoying ring dances and games at the American Swedish Historical Museum's annual Midsommarfest on Saturday, June 22, 2013 from 4:00 to 7:30pm. The Midsommarfest is a day of fun for the entire family with food, music, dance, raffles, games and activities for kids of all ages.

The Midsommarfest at the American Swedish Historical Museum is hosted by Midsommarklubben, a group of Swedish-speaking volunteers who has taken pride in bringing Swedish holiday traditions to our region for more than 25 years. The Swedish Museum Singers will be performing during Midsommarfest and traditional Swedish music will accompany the many popular dances around the midsommarpole. Refreshments such as smörgåstårter (sandwich tortes), hot dogs and home-baked Swedish pastries will be available for purchase. Midsommarfest runs rain or shine and includes general admission to the Museum galleries and our current special exhibit, Art by SIGELLE, featuring works by artist Sigrid Elisabeth Oldenburg.

Midsommar is one of Sweden's most important holidays, a unique Swedish celebration, and a day to rejoice in the coming of summer at a time when daylight is at its longest. At Midsommar time people all over Sweden retreat to the countryside, eager to savor the festivities with friends and family. In fact, Midsommar is a national holiday comparable to our Fourth of July celebration. The cost is $10.00 for adults and $4.00 children 4-12; children under 4 are free. Please contact ASHM at 215-389-1776, info@americanswedish.org for more information or visit www.americanswedish.org.

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in scenic FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia near the Sports Complex. Plenty of free parking is available. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street Subway's Pattison Avenue stop is within walking distance or SEPTA's Route 17 can bring you to the museum.
