-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

Play All Day, Pippi Style!
Pippi Family Fun Day
at the American Swedish Historical Museum
Monday, February 16th, 2015, 10am to 3pm

Philadelphia, PA- Even though it is Presidents Day across the country, February 16th is Pippi Day at the American Swedish Historical Museum! Help us celebrate the last official day of Do You Know Pippi Longstocking? in our special exhibition gallery. We are excited to say that after February, Pippi will be relocating to a slightly smaller space in the museum, so kids and families will be able to enjoy playing with Pippi and most of the original exhibit components for some time to come!

The museum will be open for Pippi Family Fun Day from 10am to 3pm on Monday, February 16th. Children will be able to cook up some fun in the kitchen of Villa Villekulla, test their strength lifting Pippi's horse, discover treasures in the Thing Finder cabinet, or imagine themselves as something new with the dress up trunk. We will also offer a hands-on craft and face painting, as well as light refreshments. Admission is free for members, general museum admission for non-members.

For more information on our upcoming programs and events, please visit americanswedish.org, email info@americanswedish.org, or call (215) 389-1776.

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in scenic FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia near the Sports Complex. Plenty of free parking is available. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street Subway's AT&T/Pattison Avenue stop is within walking distance or SEPTA's Route 17 (Naval Base) can bring you right to the Museum.
