SmörgåsBeer'd

Saturday, October 15th, 2011, 4-7pm
At the American Swedish Historical Museum

Do you enjoy a tall, cold one on an early autumn evening with some good tunes playing and munchies on hand? If that sounds like your kind of night, then you will be sure to enjoy the ASHM's first ever beer tasting. (Later, you can brag about being here the very first year, before the event got really big!)

Sample lagers, ales, pilsners, and the like with Yards, Triumph Brewery and the Bottle Shop. Reps from all three will be on hand to give you the background on each variety they serve. A spread of savory finger foods will satisfy your hunger and help you decide which beer goes best with Swedish meatballs, mini sausages, cheese & more. Tickets are $25 per person, or 5 for $100 if you register by October 10th, and include drinks and food. There will also be a raffle on site, with an array for interesting things to be had, from sports items to gift baskets and certificates.

All proceeds from this event benefit the ASHM. Enjoy a fun evening, and help support the museum's programs. If the weather permits, it will be held outside, on the beautiful museum steps overlooking FDR Park. The event is suitable for adults, 21 and older. Call 215-389-1776, email info@americanswedish.org or visit americanswedish.org for more information and to purchase tickets.

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia, five blocks west of the Sports Complex. The Museum is easily accessible from Route 95 or 76 and has free parking. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street subway AT&T station, or SEPTA's Route 17 bus is within walking distance of the Museum.
