Philadelphia, PA- Join us for an evening of elegance, as the American Swedish Historical Museum holds its annual fundraiser, Spring Ting, on Saturday, May 3rd, 2014. This event, which includes a silent auction, hors d'oeuvre reception and a delicious three-course dinner, is always a delightful way to spend the evening while at the same time helping to raise funds for the museum's exhibitions and educational programs.

This year we are celebrating the flavors of Sweden by offering a delicious menu of Swedish-inspired dishes crafted by our caterer, Jeffrey A. Miller Catering. It will also be a unique opportunity to meet our special guest, Sweden's new Ambassador to the United States, Björn Lyrvall.

To attend our Spring Ting event, please call the museum at (215) 389-1776 or purchase tickets online at www.americanswedish.org/calendar.htm. Ticket prices are $95 for ASHM members, $125 for Individuals, $150 for Friends (1 ticket), $300 for Patrons (2 tickets) and $550 for Sponsors (4 tickets). Seating is limited, please reserve your tickets by April 18, 2014. For more information, please call the museum or email info@americanswedish.org.

For anyone who is not able to attend Spring Ting in person, we will also be holding an online auction during the two weeks prior to the event. It's a great chance to get something unique for yourself or to give as a gift. Choose from a wide array of items, including jewelry, gift certificates, tickets, travel packages and sports memorabilia. Check it out, beginning Friday, April 18th, at www.biddingforgood.com/americanswedish, and bid to your hearts content knowing that whatever you spend will go towards raising funds for the ASHM.

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in scenic FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia near the Sports Complex. Plenty of free parking is available. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street Subway's AT&T/Pattison Avenue stop is within walking distance or SEPTA's Route 17 (Naval Base) can bring you right to the Museum.
