-- FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE --

The pitter patter of little feet!
Toddler Time is back for 2014
At the American Swedish Historical Museum
Third Tuesday of each month, starting January 21, 2014, 10.30 – 11.30am

Philadelphia, PA- In 2013, Toddler Time was a big hit with our member families, as well as our local community! We are happy to announce that we have a whole new year of wonderful programs planned for our littlest visitors. Children 18 months to 4 years are invited to visit the museum the third Tuesday of each month for stories, interactive play and crafts in the museum. Topics allow kids to engage with the museum through literature, art and science, all in a fun way that will please even the tiniest tot!

Each Toddler Time class includes circle time, stories, songs and activities that encourage creative self-expression and promote motor skill development. Join us as we travel through the museum, discovering different aspects of shapes, color, nature, language and more! The next Toddler Time is scheduled for January 21, 2014 and will occur on the third Tuesday of the month.

Registration is free for museum member children and $5 for non-member children. There is no additional charge for accompanying caregivers. To register or for more information, call the museum at 215. 389. 1776, register online at americanswedish.org/calendar.htm or e-mail education@americanswedish.org.

The American Swedish Historical Museum is located in FDR Park at 1900 Pattison Avenue in South Philadelphia, five blocks west of the Sports Complex. The Museum is easily accessible from Route 95 or 76 and has free parking. For those taking public transportation, the Broad Street subway AT&T/Pattison Ave stop, or SEPTA's Route 17 bus is within walking distance of the Museum.
